1. Military barracks are located at Skleccki, which is situated three kilometers east of Kutno. The barracks were constructed before the war and were occupied by the 27th or 37th Polish Infantry Regiment in 1939. During the war, the barracks were partially destroyed.
2. These barracks now accommodate an unidentified Polish infantry unit. In autumn of 1952, new garages were built nearby. At the same time, it was observed that a transport of about 20 heavy trucks on caterpillar tracks (wheels in front) arrived at Kutno and was sent on in the direction of Skleccki. Apart from this, the unit has at its disposal a large number of trucks. Repair work is still being carried out on the barracks.
3. An unidentified Polish unit is stationed in barracks on ul. Stalina in Kutno. The barracks consist of 3 three-story buildings.
